

Learning Caregiver Basics:

Communicating with Skill and Heart

Supporting a person with memory loss involves dealing with a number of communication challenges. This presentation provides tips on how to successfully and compassionately communicate throughout the progression of dementia using both verbal and non-verbal techniques. Skillful communication can remove roadblocks and increase empathy to improve relationships and quality of life.

Join us for this interactive session through your computer or phone.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Contact Mary Catherine Lundquist at lundqumc@ubhc.rutgers.edu or call Care2Caregivers at 800.424.2494

February 16, 2023 | 1:00-2:00 pm

Click HERE to register.

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.